with Betty Allen...

A good example of what ingenuity and determination can do has been demonstrated this week at the High School with the opening of the cafeteria on Monday. Laurence Hill, principal and superintendent, made up his mind that the students were going to have a cafeteria by hook or by crook.

The only place offering food was a small "shack", known as the Canteen which could accommodate about 50 students. Hampered by lack of funds and the well-known building problems, Hill went to work anyway, exploring the possibilities of army surplus goods.

His efforts resulted in securing three aluminum army barracks which have been thrown together to make an unusually attractive and bright building capable of seating 250 students. Brand new army surplus furniture came with it and Hill says a soda fountain will be installed soon to give the boys and girls the very latest in cafeterias. Mrs. True Tourtell is the new manager.

After such an excellent solution of one of the high school's problems, I will expect to see a swimming pool materialize any day now. It may be whipped up out of rubber life rafts, but it will be good!

Regarding the Old Settlers' Day origin—Guy Farley says he was at the first one, held in the Ainsley warehouse, and he is sure it was in 1892, making this year's celebration the 55th.

Ronnie Mautner, popular local butcher, went East to Wisconsin for a lengthy visit, but after just a few weeks of Wisconsin weather which included a genuine, honest-to-goodness tornado, he made tracks for the Santa Clara Valley and is busy telling all his friends that there is really something to this "sunny California" business.

Bert Robinson, San Jose State athletic star, is a patient in McFadden Hospital on the campus as the result of an injury incurred during basketball practice. Hear he's well on the road to recovery.

FORMER CAMPBELLITE DIES

A former Campbell resident, Mrs. May Louise Brown, was claimed by death last Thursday in Santa Cruz where she had made her home for several years. She leaves her husband, Lee Brown, and three sons, Lloyd J. Smith of Los Gatos, Hubert H. Smith of Oakland, and Arnold Shell of Fresno. Three grandsons and a brother and sister also survive.

Mrs. Brown was a member of Ada Rebekah Lodge. Her funeral rites were conducted Saturday at the Melvin Mortuary Chapel in Los

THE PIONEERS

Hail, all hail, to the Pioneers!
The men who have made our State,
Who journeyed from far-off countries,
With the key to the Golden Gate.

Our Pioneer Mothers, God bless them
For the part they took in the fray
Our Native Sons and Daughters
Will arise and bless them today.

They made our State a garden,
Those Pioneer men of old,
Who answered from 'round the planet
The call of the garrulous gold.

With their oxen and prairie schooners,
They placed their trust in God,
And bravely faced all dangers
O'er leagues of land, untrod.

Now, cars for sleeping, cars for smoking,
Cars where one may dine
Flash over the oxen trail
They blazed in Forty-nine.

Our harbors teem with commerce,
Our towns are marts of trade,
For they, wielded wealth compellers,
Outside the pick and spade.

Hail! All hail to the Pioneers,
To the fathers and mothers, too,
For trusting all, their faith in God,
They builded better than they knew.

Full Schedule Arranged For Old Settlers' Day

With plans in their final stages a full day is shaping up for Campbell's annual Old Settlers' Day, Feb. 22. Under the direction of T. A. Cutting, general chairman, the festivities will officially begin at 10 a. m., when the Old Settlers will register at the high school. Guy Farley will be in charge of the registration and announces that the reception committee for the day will be composed of William Coupland, Mark Purmort, Miss Mary Fablinger, Henry S. Young, Mrs. Jessie Campbell, Mrs. Charlotte Sutter and Mrs. Carrie M. Curry.

As soon as the Old Settlers are registered the morning program in the High School auditorium will begin. A speaker from Stanford University will be featured and Cutting announces musical numbers in addition which will star the Grammar School orchestra and include numbers by Miss Ruth Cousins, the Rev. Lawrence J. Osborne and the Rev. Robert Carlson.

Following the program, members of the audience may lunch in the high school cafeteria which will be kept open for the occasion.

Promptly at 1 p. m. the parade is scheduled to start from the railroad tracks and progress to the High School past the judging stand which will be placed in front of the Grammar School. From the number of entry blanks received, every indication is evident that the parade will be of unusual caliber, according to William Henley, chairman of that event.

Immediately after the parade a varied program will begin in the High School gymnasium featuring a band concert, basketball games and drill work presented by the Ne Tops Council, Degree of Pochontas. At the same time a concert will be given in the High School auditorium by the school orchestra followed by movies of earlier days and reminiscent talks by the old settlers themselves. Lawrence Hill is arranging the afternoon program.

At 8 p. m. the Campbell residents and their guests will again gather in the High School auditorium to witness a three-act comedy, "Springtime for Johnny", presented by the Footlighters. Following the play, a dance sponsored jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the American Legion will be given in the school gymnasium. Al Carter, Legion chairman, reports that Bill Smith's nine-piece band will play. Lowell Benson is in charge of the evening part of the day's activities.

Gatos, followed by interment in the family plot in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Strong Bros. Win Two Games

In the first game of the Campbell Basketball League last Thursday night, Strong Bros. defeated Nelson's Sport Shop, 37-34, in a very close game. Tom Rose and Bill Harrison paced the winners with 10 points apiece, while John Nelson was high scorer for Nelson's Sport Shop. In the second game of the evening, the American Legion came from behind to down Field's Store, 47-44. John Hummel scored 14 points for the Legion, while Nick Barbaccia ran up a total of 18 points for Field's Store.

Strong Bros. won their second game of the week by defeating the American Legion on Tuesday evening, 51-41, thus going into the lead in the second half of the league with three wins and no defeats. Bill Harrison led the scoring for Strong Bros. with 20 digits. Frank Lovoi was high scorer for the Legion with 13 points. In the second game of the evening Nelson's Sport Shop dealt Jones Service their second defeat of the season by a score of 38-17. George Del Grande paced the winners with 9 points, while Ivan Lobrovich was high man for Jones Service with 8 points.

Coming Game

By DAVE WOODS
"Beat Mt. View." That's the cry of the Buccaneers all week as the Campbell High varsity basketball team point toward Friday night's tilt with the Mt. View Eagles. This will be the big game thus far in the season, for a victory here and another over Los Gatos would put the Campbellites into a tie for the S.C.V.A.L. crown, with the winner of the Los Gatos-Mt. View game. This is, of course, barring further upsets. So any basketball fan, who enjoys a close, hard, ball game, should journey to Mt. View on Friday. The varsity tilt will begin about 8:45. The 130 exp. teams play a preliminary game at 7:30.

Probable starting lineup for the Red and Blue varsity is: Forwards, Ray Fish and either Reg Gazay or Mel Estrada; center, Levi Estrada; guards, Wayne Buck and either Vic Corsiglia or Rich Villafuerte. Dan Filice and George Gleed should break in. Coach Robert Robinson will pick one of his two equal lightweight squads as starters just before game time. The squad members are: Forwards, Monte Dayton and Del Ambler or Ron LaMar and Anthony Ciraulo; center, Bill Magginnetti or Milt Howe; guards, Frank Shepherd and Jim Beth or Dan Hill and Rich Geraci.

The remainder of the Campbell schedule: *Friday, Feb. 14—Mt. View, there, night.

Tuesday, Feb. 18—Lincoln, here, afternoon.

Friday, Feb. 21—Santa Cruz, there, night. Tentative.

Saturday, Feb. 22—Watsonville, there, night.

*Friday, Feb. 28—Los Gatos, here, night.

*League.

VETS DEFEAT HOUSING SHORTAGE

California's housing shortage proves no problem to two enterprising veterans. Ex-Wave Mary Morrow and her husband John, also a veteran, are shown making repairs to their sailboat home at the Berkeley Yacht Harbor. Morrow is a student at Berkeley's University of California.

Memories of Past Old Settlers' Days

By JOHN D. BLAINE

Old Settlers' Day was born in a setting especially romantic, and that needs to be understood in order to understand the day itself.

Back in the last century the fruit boom suddenly turned Santa Clara Valley into what seemed to be a gentleman farmer's paradise. Man naturally belongs to the soil, and a new opening for return to the soil makes farming intensely glamorous. Fruit raising was thought a particularly genteel kind of farming.

It was believed that with fruit a family could make a good living on five acres, and that you could purchase bare land on time, plant it in trees, and simply pay interest until your orchard was in full bearing and then pay off the mortgage with two crops. While waiting for your "ranch" to bear you could make much of your living by working for neighbors whose orchards were already in production.

And in the fruit harvest even small children could do their bit, cutting fruit by the box. A "fruit drier" was virtually a social center, and few wanted to be left out. Everybody was aiming for social and economic betterment, and the glamor in all this would be hard to exaggerate.

The first new settlers did all that was claimed to be possible. Old Settlers' Day in Campbell was said, by digging ditches. As a speaker he scorned applause. He cared only to make his audience think. After the picnic dinner we were entertained by the Stanford Glee Club.

In point of attendance Old Settlers' Days reached a climax, it may be, in one of the years we used the equipment of Campbell Union Grammar School. Our morning speaker was C. C. Young, Lieutenant Governor of California, and afterward Governor. This was the occasion when we planted that beautiful tree now conspicuous in the center of the Grammar School lawn. And this was the first time that the day was made an affair for the whole County. Pioneers came from as far away as Gilroy, for all local newspapers of the County were sent material for publicity.

The original romantic spirit of Old Settlers' Day we can hardly expect to restore. We have lost some of our illusions. But an old tradition has a glamor in itself; and friendliness, good will, and the spirit of good cooperation are forever needed and forever inspirational.

Joseph Bohnett, a pioneer of Cambrian district, told about the fruit boom itself. More than a generation of wheat raising had lowered surface fertility until farmers around here were going bankrupt. Then one morning these farmers awoke to find the fruit boom on and bare land worth $250 an acre. Selling half your acreage made you feel rich; turning the other half into orchard kept you feeling so.

It was "Uncle" Dan Rose, of Casey Road, who led talk about crossing the plains with covered wagon trains, the cross-country transportation of the 1840's. Since typical old settlers around Campbell had used this method they hung on Uncle Dan's story, which was rather disappointing to the rest of us. The sensible pioneers of these parts had found the plains friendly and the Indians friendly as well. To these men dramatic adventure would have meant carelessness and misadventure.

As Old Settlers' Day took definite form in following years they became occasions of inspirational programs in which were featured speakers of much distinction. Those "greatest" Old Settlers' Days—greatest in inspirational glow—were held in a warehouse of J. C. Ainsley's Cannery. This informal setting itself contributed to the romance, for old and young worked for Mr. Ainsley for economic and social "up and out", for land ownership or for money to go to college.

Tops among our distinguished speakers was Dr. David Starr Jordan, colorful self-made head of Stanford University, which was then a poor man's school. Herbert Hoover was then at Stanford, working his way. Dr. Jordan himself had worked his way, it was said, by digging ditches. As a speaker he scorned applause. He cared only to make his audience think. After the picnic dinner we were entertained by the Stanford Glee Club.

Amazing New Product Converted In Campbell

FIRST CARLOAD SHIPMENT LEAVES; FUTURE EXPANSION ANTICIPATED

Although it is at present in limited production, the National Perlite Co., located near the railroad behind the Western Gravel Co., will offer Campbell residents its first industry supplying year-round employment. When the newly-formed company is in full production, it is estimated that several hundred men will be employed. Yesterday its first carload shipment left Campbell.

Final Rites For B. L. McCaughey

Private funeral services were conducted Saturday morning at the Place Funeral Home in Los Gatos for Ben L. McCaughey, who died suddenly in his sleep at his Sunnyside Ave. home Thursday, Feb. 6. Interment followed at the Los Gatos cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were Mr. McCaughey's three nephews, William, Richard and Bert Robinson, and Fred Coffin, H. B. Gelatt and Wesley Briggs. The Rev. Robert Carlson of the Campbell Congregational Church officiated at the rites.

Born in Ohio in 1879, Mr. McCaughey came to California in 1912 and has resided here ever since. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Elena Robinson of Campbell, and in addition to his three nephews, three nieces, Mrs. Alice Kale of Stockton, Mrs. Eva Coffin of Richmond, and Mrs. Helen Parker of Salinas. A cousin, Mrs. Lola Hook of Los Gatos, also survives.

Campbell vs. Gilroy

In two rough, but not too tough, contests, played at the Buc gym last Friday, the Campbell High cage squads defeated the Gilroy High Mustangs twice. The Campbell varsity, after a slow start, which gave them only a 2-1 first quarter lead, poured it on in the fourth period to gain a 37 to 19 decision.

The local 130s had a tougher time, but a fast second half proclaimed them the victors. The varsity encounter featured the splendid shooting of Campbell's Levi Estrada, who tallied 14 markers. Ray Fish and Reg Gazay also helped the Buc cause with 6 apiece. Joe Vogel paced the Mustangs with 7 points. The Campbell thirty scoring was ably handled by Monte Dayton, Bill Magginnetti and Jim Beth. They scored 7, 6, and 5, respectively. The Cowboys were led by Kishimura and Imuro with 6 each.

Season scoring leaders on the varsity were still Levi Estrada, 93; Ray Fish, 69; Mel Estrada, 63, and Wayne Buck, 58. Estrada and Fish are also near the top in league scoring with 58 and 43. Top men on the 30s are Bill Magginnetti, 55; Monte Dayton, 54; and Ron La Mor, 40. No one is near the top league scorers.

TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION

VOTES TO TRY

INCORPORATION AGAIN

At an enthusiastic meeting Monday evening, the Campbell Taxpayers' Association voted to attempt the incorporation of Campbell again in the near future. Richard Morton, attorney for the group during the recent election, told members that the same steps taken before, including a petition, would be necessary for another election.

Highlighting the meeting was the election of officers, nominated by a nominating committee. Chosen to direct the group's activities for the coming year were R. E. Schaeffle, chairman; Ellsworth Raker, vice-chairman; Earl Buck, William Wolff, Alfred Brydon, Alfred Conley and Frank Mortono, members of the executive committee.

The employment of local residents, while important to the community, is a minor matter compared to the potentialities of the product to be manufactured.

Joseph Fournier, a Los Gatos man, has developed a product known as "Perlite", which, in addition to its known uses, faces an unlimited field.

Derived from volcanic rock, the fluffy, powdery stuff, may be the secret weapon needed to beat the housing shortage, for it can be used as a building substance to erect low-cost homes and will also have many commercial uses including increased safety factors.

Although the substance known as perlite has been recognized since 1919, no one has before devised a method of producing it in commercial quantities until Fournier perfected his patented converter which "blows up" the volcanic ore without breaking down the product.

His four-acre plant in Campbell now has the world's only successful converter. The ore, mined by open-pit process in Nevada, California, New Mexico and Colorado, is received here and transformed in such a way that one unit of rock becomes 15 units of perlite. The finished product is sent out by Western Gravel Co., now serving as distributors for Northern California.

At present the plant is capable of producing 32,400 cubic yards of perlite annually. This is done with only one converter. Within the next six months Fournier hopes to have six converters in operation with a total of 20 planned for the future giving a total production of 6,480,000 cubic yards per year valued at $71,961,000.

The new plant is besieged with orders for the material, not only from eager buyers in this country, but from foreign governments who would like the product to begin their post-war housing and commercial plans.

According to Fournier the varying uses of this magic substance will be unlimited and only a few of them are known at the present time. It can be utilized in almost every item needed for the construction of a house, including the foundation, bricks, marble finishing, insulation, paint, wallboard, wall and floor tile.

Some of its other known uses are a base for face powder, a part in the sugar industry, and a filter material for food products. More uses are being discovered daily for this amazing volcanic derivative.

Heading the company are L. E. Fournier, treasurer; L. R. Goodrich of Oakland, counsel and secretary; Commander William Haye, plant manager; Chester Smith, construction superintendent; and Richard Buckles, sales manager.

Patrick H. Peabody, publisher of The Campbell Press and three other County weeklies, was appointed Monday to the County Planning Commission by the Board of Supervisors to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Robert C. Kirkwood.

Kirkwood resigned, he said, because of his increasing duties as a member of the State Legislature to which he was elected last November.

Moreland Notes

As you all know Valentine's Day is coming Friday, and at Moreland School the 7th and 8th grades are having a party. The ones that are giving the party are five girls from the 8th grade. They are Marie Battaglia, Marie Stephens, Joyce Mazzurco, Dolores Atwell.

The PTA gave the girls $2.00 for the cake, and the drinks and candy were given by Mr. Joseph Battaglia of Box 311 Payne Ave.

Last Wednesday the PTA had their first anniversary. Mrs. Hanson, the PTA president, will resign, because she is leaving for the Hawaiian Islands. At the meeting last week the PTA had as their visitors, Mrs. Potts and Mrs. Wilson, officers of District 6.

The 8th grade had their Civics test two weeks ago. There were 30 questions. Every pupil passed. The class average was 90 per cent.

At Moreland School there is a club. It is a music club. The president is Rosemarie Magnasco; the vice-president is Irene Hill; the secretary is Elaine Smith; and the treasurer is Ruth Eyer. It is a very good club and coming along fine.

—Marie Battaglia.

Mr. Brown of the 7th and 8th grades has inaugurated a scheme known as "The Student of the Week"

In the weeks to come he will honor the student whom he believes to have shown the best all around ability in scholarship and citizenship.

This week the award goes to Manuel Macias of the 7th grade. Watch for the name next time. Try to be the next student to be honored.

—George Nelson.

BIBLE STUDY

How to study the Bible is important. Nine rules are given as follows: 1. Note: Who is speaking. To whom. Under what dispensation and circumstances. Does it apply to us? 2. Collect all passages on a particular subject in order to get the entire Bible teaching on that subject. 3. Harmonize passages instead of trying to set one against another. 4. Speak where the Bible speaks, and be silent when it is silent. 5. Call Bible things by Bible names. 6. Do Bible things in Bible ways. 7. Have plain teaching, approved precedents or examples, or clear implications of New Testament teaching to support your faith and practice. 8. Recognize the difference between the Old Testament and New Testament dispensations. 9. Be a disciple of the word of God and not a dictator or distorter of it.

That we are living today under the New Testament and not the Old is shown in the following passages: 2 Corinthians 3:2-16; Galatians 4:21-31; Ephesians 2:11-16; Hebrews 8:6-13; Hebrews 1:1, 2; Hebrews 9:15-17. Proper reasons for studying the Old Testament are as follows: 1. To learn facts not found elsewhere. 2. To learn more of persons, places or things referred to in the New Testament. 3. For illustrations of New Testament principles, as shown in Romans 15:4-13 and 1 Corinthians 10:1-12.

MRS. SWANE'S ROOM

The PTA awarded a prize of $2.50 to the fifth grade for gathering the most rags for the rag drive conducted last semester, announced Mrs. Swane. The purpose of a rag drive is to help the European children.

Mrs. Swane's students have been studying South America in addition to music appreciation. Because of good work during the semester, Mrs. Swane has announced there will be a Valentine party Friday afternoon. At present they are drawing designs for art folders. Their library period is on Thursday. They hold their club meeting on Friday.

—George Goodridge, High 8B2.

Mr. Gordon's music room is in quite a mix-up since he has just moved it. It used to be upstairs, but now it is downstairs. The big billboard he used to have up is leaning against the wall and half the pictures are falling from it.

Mr. Gordon is the orchestra leader and so he has quite a busy day.
—Sherrill Chamberlain, High A2.

Miss Hassler, teacher of room F in the new wing, has a second grade of 42 pupils. In her room they received three new goldfish. As soon as they got them, they almost died, but the pupils helped them all they could and they were soon revived. The room is all decorated with Valentine envelopes that the pupils made. Each pupil makes a separate envelope with their name on it. These envelopes act as separate Valentine boxes.

Students at Campbell Union High School, in common with all other public, parochial or private schools in the Nation, are eligible to enter the second annual National High School Photographic Contest.

Opening Feb. 15, and closing May 15, this competition offers high school pupils who are interested in photography an opportunity to compete for prizes totaling $3500 in cash to help further their education, plus national recognition for their work. Last year two San Joseans, Lincoln High School students, won prizes in this competition.

This year, pictures taken since May 15, 1946, will be eligible for entry. There will be five classes. In each class a first prize of $100 will be awarded, a second prize of $50, and a third prize of $30. One of the five first prize winners will be selected as the $500 grand prize winner. Thus, a young photographer may win as much as $600 for a single snapshot. In addition to the 16 major award winners, 75 awards of $10 each, and 270 awards of $5 each will be given, irrespective of class—a total of 361 awards.

Veterans Administration board of appeals now is disposing of an average of 2,900 appeals from VA rulings monthly.

The course will consist of five indoor meetings and a weekend at the Stuart Scout Ranch above Saratoga.

This training in Troop Camping is not limited to Scoutmasters. The course is open to Troop Committeemen and fathers of Scouts who at any time may be concerned with Troop Camping.

The following men have been chosen as the leaders of the provisional Training Troop: Scoutmaster, Thomas P. Ryan; Assistant Scoutmaster, Leonard R. Flicker; Senior Patrol Leader, Sewall Brown; Patrol Leaders, John Deutsch, Ray Reel, Ric Wells, LaVern Fine, Clarence Hoehn, Claude Smith, John Wilson Jr., R. D. Heschbach, and Arthur Alves.

CADETS START TRAINING

Under the supervision of Lt. Col. N. Warren Sheldon of Santa Clara a group of Campbell Union High School students have started their cadet training. This is an elective course and has been chosen by 51 students.

Weapons drills are held one hour daily, from 11 a. m. until noon. Cadet headquarters are in the Observation Tower, named for service it performed during the war.

District Superintendent Laurence Hill said that a rifle range would be constructed for trainees under the bleachers on the football field soon.

LICENSE SUSPENDED

Mrs. Wynema Lee Parker, 80 Gilman St., has had her driver's license suspended for 30 days as the result of a conviction for driving while intoxicated in Campbell.

Special attraction at the Campbell Theater Wednesday, Feb. 19, will be the personal appearance of Brad King, Hollywood cowboy star and his Dream Ranch Girls, featuring such stars as Mildred Terry, the Sweetheart of the Prairie and her electric guitar; also, Gloria Cossette, star of the famous Hollywood Cowgirls and her yodeling fiddle. Many people will want to see and meet these stars in person.

Most movie-goers have seen these famous Hollywood Personalities on the screen many times in Western pictures. Brad King appeared as Johnny Nelson in the internationally known Hopalong Cassidy pictures. Brad's more recent pictures are "The Texas Wildcat", "Terrors of the Canyon" and "The Cow Country Kid". Brad is a writer of Western songs including "Tag Along",

"Dream Ranch in the Sky", "Rain or Shine" and "Who Do You Think You're Foolin'." Brad's latest recording is "Gal in Calico" and "This Is My Lazy Day".

Don't fail to see and hear Brad sing you the Western songs you like. You will enjoy his witty stories and be amazed at his ability to imitate your favorite screen and radio stars. He will introduce his Six Gun (little six) and his guitar (big six).

The Dream Ranch Girls, well-known personalities of screen and radio, will appear with Brad and lend their talent to round out a complete evening's entertainment.

L. E. Garcia left this week for a business trip to Los Angeles. The beard he is growing for Old Settlers' Day may make him eligible for a movie role—or may, at least, give the impression that he is an actor.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Vegetable Trickery

It seems only yesterday that winter vegetables were allowed to lie in storage almost indefinitely, when served, it was done with an apology. Yet these winter members of the vegetable kingdom have not only good nourishment but excellent appetite appeal to offer.

Carrots and sweet potatoes are rich sources of vitamin A which we need for building resistance to colds. Rutabaga is also rich in this vitamin. For vitamin B2 you can concentrate on such things as turnip greens, beet greens, green lima beans and dried peas. Green peppers, which are easily available as well as brussels sprouts, are good sources of vitamin C. Green beans, broccoli and cabbage supply calcium, phosphorus and iron.

Fortunately for advances made in cooking techniques, none of the winter vegetables need wear a humdrum air when they come to the dinner table. Dress them up and give them a bit of seasoning and glamour and the family will relish them.

*Carrot Loaf (Serves 6)

1 cup milk
3 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon salad oil
1 1/2 cups grated raw carrots
1/2 cup dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 cup cooked rice
Add milk to well beaten eggs; add salt, pepper, sugar and salad oil. Mix carrots, bread crumbs, nuts and rice; fold into first mixture. Turn into a greased loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45 minutes. Serve with a cream sauce to which hard-cooked eggs or peas have been added.

Fried Carrots and Apples (Serves 6)

6 medium-sized carrots
6 small apples
3 tablespoons drippings
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1/4 cup dark corn syrup
1 teaspoon salt
Wash and drain carrots; cut into thin pieces lengthwise. Wash, peel and core apples; cut into eighths lengthwise. Melt drippings in skillet and add sugar and syrup. Arrange carrots and apples in alternating layers in pan, sprinkling each layer with salt. Cover and cook over low flame for 1 1/2 hours. Turn onto hot platter and serve at once.

Puffs are a very popular way of dressing up vegetables. Here are two vegetables treated in this way:

FUTURE FARMERS TO TAKE PART IN SHOW

More than 350 Future Farmers from about 60 high schools who have indicated their intention of participating in the Grand National Junior Livestock show at the Cow Palace in San Francisco, March 29-April 3, will make up the major share of the 448 juniors who have answered a pre-registration census. The totals show that these vocational agriculture boys will enter 191 beef cattle, 125 lambs and 330 hogs in the individual classes, besides six pens of five steers each, and four carloads of sheep and four carloads of swine of 25 head each. This makes a total of 876 head of FFA stock to be entered.

Lodi High School leads the list with 20 prospective exhibitors, followed by San Jose's Abraham Lincoln High School and Bakersfield High with 15 each, and Cambria, Hayward, Hollister, Salinas and Watsonville with 12 each. Fullerton High School in Orange County, and Tulalake High near the Oregon border, loom as the farthest south and north respectively in California.

The Campbell High School will be represented by three boys with eight head of stock.

EXCHANGE PULPITS

This coming Sunday morning the Rev. Haven Martin, minister of the First Methodist Church, Walnut Creek, will be the guest minister at the Congregational Church. Mr. Carlson will be preaching in Walnut Creek. During their seminary years Mr. Martin and Mr. Carlson were classmates and have been planning this exchange of pulpits for some time. Mr. Carlson has been attending the Pastoral Conference at the Pacific School of Religion this week.

PERSONNEL ASSISTANT TO SPEAK

The next meeting of the Country Woman's Club of Campbell will be held Monday afternoon, Feb. 17, at 2:30 p. m.

The featured speaker for the afternoon is Mrs. Addie B. Bishop, Principal Personnel Assistant to Industrial Relations, Mare Island Navy Yard.

The musical numbers on the program will be furnished by Shirlene Atkinson, Harriet Kennedy and Beverly Suess, the "Ero Trio" of the San Jose State College.

CAMPBELL COURT NOTES

By JUDGE BLAINE

This man arrested for "drunk driving" might have been a friend or relative of yours. He was good looking, well dressed, evidently intelligent, and he showed no signs of being habitually a hard drinker.

He said, "If my driver's license is suspended for 30 days I'll lose the job I've had for 20 years. I'm a collector for a public utility company. I'll gladly pay any fine you impose. It's coming to me for being foolish. But you see my predicament if I can't legally drive."

He had been arrested by a patrol car near his own home while driving slowly but somewhat unsteadily. He had been stopped on suspicion, and it was a good thing. "Served him right," as we say; and a fine would be a good lesson.

The judge said, "I'm sorry, but the law permits no exceptions. All who plead guilty to violating Section 502 of the California Vehicle Code automatically lose their driving privilege for 30 days. Admitted that this equal penalty judgment frustrated. Perhaps everybody should have a turn at being a judge—or at having his or isn't equal punishment. But judges don't make our laws."

"Why isn't a judge allowed to use his own judgment? Why do we have this equal treatment of unequal people?"

The judge nodded. "Yes, one of the most intelligent things I ever heard of a professor saying was this: 'Nothing is so unequal as equal treatment of unequal people.' But the people themselves are rather fond of this oversimplification. Equal treatment of unequal people is a substitute for thought."

"I admit I never thought of it myself before."

"Perhaps a judge wouldn't think of it himself if he didn't find his her driving privilege automatically suspended regardless of what it meant in the given individual case."

"What am I to do?"

"Write to some member of our State Legislature in protest against the progressive limiting of judges in their judgment. If you don't, the time may come when every violation of the traffic code will lead to an automatic suspension of driving privileges for 30 days."

Well, since the Campbell judge himself rides a bicycle he won't worry.

HAPPY IN JAPAN

At least one soldier is happy in Japan! Pfc. Donald Neff has written his mother that he would like to extend his service in the Army because he so enjoys his work as radio operator in Gen. MacArthur's headquarters.

The youthful soldier graduated from Campbell Union High School in 1945 and enlisted in the Army last April.

CLUB SEES SKIT

On last Thursday the St. Lucy's Women's Club held its meeting with the president, Mrs. Martin S. Walsh, presiding. The report on the last card party was made and it was considered one of the most successful afternoon parties ever held.

After the meeting Dean Chamberlain's dramatic class of Campbell Union High School presented a skit entitled "Doubling For Ann", which was enjoyed by all present. The cast was as follows: Jo, Luella Devich; Bill, Leonard Ellis; Ann, Kathy Stanton; Alec, Herb Bonds; Hollis, Jim Spalding. Director Regina Silva and Pat Whitmore, Gene Curry and Marjorie Livingston helped.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Ira Grim, Mrs. Joseph Gomes and Mrs. Joseph Homen Sr. Refreshments and decorations carried out the Valentine motif.

Over 63,000 World War II veterans are studying farming right on the farm under two Federal laws administered by Veterans Administration.

FARM NEWS

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE

FOR GROWERS INTERESTED IN DOING GRAFTING

In order that growers planning to do grafting this spring may have correct information, Farm Advisor L. C. Barnard would like to urge them to prepare their grafting wood in the following manner:

First, collect the grafting wood (clones) from trees that are known bearers of high quality fruit or nuts. This wood should be of 1946 origin, that is, taken from wood that grew this past season. The best buds and grafting wood is usually taken two or three inches back from where the small limbs were cut from the parent branch, and about one-third of the way back from the terminal bud on the other end. This insures well-nourished buds of good maturity. The ends of these grafting sticks, which are usually one foot to 18 inches long, are dipped in grafting wax and then put in cold storage 40 degrees F., or buried one foot underground in a trench in the coldest and dampest part of the yard. The soil should be kept moist but not saturated.

CAUTION: Do not put dormant grafting wood in the refrigerator for two reasons. First, the grafting wood will be desiccated and dried out when you go to use it. Second, the continual opening and by the housewife throughout the day causes too great a fluctuation to uniform temperature. These changes in temperature, up and down, will break the rest or dormant period of the grafting wood, which means it will not be sufficiently dormant or properly treated when grafting time arrives in the spring. Now is the time to take wood for stone fruits and almonds, however, the latter part of January or February would closing of the refrigerator door be better for taking of walnut grafting wood, because of the fact that a lot of walnut trees are not fully dormant.

A new bulletin on grafting is just off the press and is available free of charge at the local Agricultural Extension Service office, 201 Post Office Bldg., San Jose, or phone Columbia 3866.
